NEWS RELEASE: August 10, 2007

Governing Board to meet August 29th in Klamath Falls

Portland, OR: The Governing Board of the Oregon Department of Geology and Mineral Industries (DOGAMI) will meet August 29, 2007, 8:00 AM at the Klamath County Courthouse basement room, 316 Main St., Klamath Falls, Oregon. The public is invited to attend.

The public is invited to an agency sponsored lecture on Monday, August 27, 2007 at 7:00 p.m in the Klamath County Courthouse basement room. The lecture, "Volcanoes, Lakes and Earthquakes: The changing geologic landscape of Klamath County," will be presented by DOGAMI Geologist Margi Jenks.

The public can also participate in an agency sponsored field trip on Tuesday, August 28, 2007, from 8:30 AM to 4:30 PM. The field trip is free. Members of the public who wish to attend the field trip must provide their own transportation.

See the attached flyer for more information on the lecture and field trip.

Agenda items for the Governing Board Meeting include:

A presentation by Jim Azumano, Director, Governor's Office of Rural Policy. Mr. Azumano will discuss the Governor's policy on rural economic development in Oregon with the Board.

A wrap-up of 2005-2007 Biennium and 74th Legislative Assembly from the Department's perspective by Vicki McConnell, State Geologist.

Regulatory issues will be discussed with Gary Lynch, Assistant Director of Regulation, Mineral Land Regulation and Reclamation Program.

Field Trip

Tuesday, August 28, 2007

8:30 am – 4:30 pm

- Meet at the Klamath County Courthouse
- Bring your own lunch and beverage
- The Field Trip will not include hikes of any distance, but wear sturdy shoes
- Driving will be on main roads, but a couple may be gravel for short stretches
- Be prepared for hot temperatures and very little shade. Wear a hat!
- Transportation will be by private vehicles, but we will want to consolidate into the fewest possible rigs

The Talk and Field Trip are in conjunction with the Oregon Department of Geology & Mineral Industries' quarterly Governing Board Meeting, which will be held in the basement room of the Courthouse on Wednesday, August 29th at 8:00 am.
